BACKGROUND PERIOD DECEMBER 16, 1981, TO NOVEMBER 8, 1982:

b2
b7D
On December 16, 1981, Agents of the New York Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) met with [] regarding information source possessed, vis a vis membership of an organization in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, called "Eastern Service Workers Association," which in secret meetings professed to be affiliated with the CPUSA. Additionally, this group claims to have a four year plan for the violent overthrow of the United States (US) Government via military type actions beginning in February, 1982.

b2
b7D
[] had not come forward sooner with this information assuming the FBI already knew of this group and was investigating them, but with the recent violent occurrence, in example (i.e.), the attempted Nyack armored car robbery and the report of having connected this violent occurrence with old left wing radical groups which had advocated the violent overthrow of the US

the violent overthrow of the US Government in the past, [] thought he should make sure of the FBI's knowledge of this organization.

b2
b7D

[] initially came into contact with this organization in late 1978, exact month unrecalled, when walking by a three - story brick building located at 1518 South Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and noticed a sign which offered free food and clothing for the needy. [] went into this building and received the promised free food along with an informative lecture on the aim of ESWA which is helping the deprived service workers in the east, i.e., domestics, attendant care workers and janitorial workers. [] was asked to help ESWA achieve their goals, which [] agreed to do basically because they were feeding him and they appeared to be interested in source's personal welfare. This resulted in assisting in telephone solicitations for money, clothing and food, as well as street solicitations. [] worked fourteen to sixteen hours in the above capacities as well as performing other odd jobs in and around the building.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[] was involved in this capacity for several months but there was never any mention of CPUSA or Marxist-Leninism. [] was, however, being asked about his past, his friends, etcetera (etc.), and political beliefs by the manager of this group, [] [] (Phonetic) (Ph) (he was uncertain of the last name) and [] [] (Ph) (also not certain of the last name), who was the Assistant Manager. [] later learned [] was the political czar of ESWA. Eventually [] approached [] and asked [] if there was something more to ESWA than just the helping of the needy.
[] then asked if he would like to become more "involved" in the work of ESWA and [] again replied in the affirmative. It was after this encounter that former [] ever heard the terms CPUSA, Soviet Union and Marxist-Leninism.

b2
b7D

After agreeing to become more involved with ESWA, [] began an indoctrination into the "inner CPUSA group" of ESWA by attending sessions on the doctrines of Marxist-Leninism. During these sessions, the inner CPUSA group members would praise the doctrines of Communism, the Soviet Union Government, Russian Revolution, Cuban Communism and Castro, whom they praised often.

b2

[] stated that not a minute of time was wasted in these "secret meetings" even to the point that during the transportation to and from these meetings, Marxist-Leninism quotations and doctrines were read. (None of the inner group members were allowed to travel alone, all were required to travel with the group). Each "secret meeting" was begun with a pledge to the effect, "This is a secret clandestine meeting of the CPUSA." Everyone in attendance at these meetings was required to sign a piece of paper noting their attendance and their pledge that nothing said in the meeting was to be divulged to other non-inner CPUSA group members. (Obviously a security precaution aimed at determining infiltrators.) They were also required to sign a piece of paper while being transported to and from these meetings and were given a "cover story" should they be stopped by the police, which was something to the effect that they were going to bingo (exact story could not be recalled). Everyone was always cautioned to never, under no circumstances, break the law and bring any police scrutiny upon an individual of the inner group or the inner group itself.

[] attended several of these types of indoctrination meetings where the meeting would be broken down into small groups of new potential members and older members. In these smaller groups, [] would be questioned on background and political beliefs. The new members would go from group to group answering basically the same questions in each of the groups. These small groups did not appear to be broken down into any particular areas that [] could remember except when [] was in a group headed by an individual (name unrecalled but will be later described) who was obviously in charge of a military aspect of the "inner group." In this small group, the prospective members would be questioned on their beliefs in violence in order to achieve a goal they believed in. (Nothing specific was discussed.)

[] attended three meetings in the New York City area, two in a church in Brooklyn, New York, located on Atlantic Avenue and one at a private residence at []. The New York meetings had a national membership flavor as there were members from other areas of the country, besides the usual east coast contingents from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Trenton, New Jersey, Atlantic City, New Jersey, New York City, and Long Island. [] can remember members or potential members from California and the Midwest.) It was the last New York meeting at the private residence, [] of an individual, name unrecalled but described as a white male, []

[] ESWA, that [] was officially asked to be a member of the "inner CPUSA group." [] accepted this invitation to the applause and kudos of the full members. (This private residence was described as being possibly a penthouse apartment with extremely expensive furnishings.)

Upon being offered and accepting membership in the "inner group" which occurred in [] was placed on one year's probation, where his activities continued to be monitored by the older members. In Philadelphia, [] continued solicitations for donations and other odd jobs. (All expenses of ESWA were paid for out of these donations and ESWA obtained all their donations, monetary, clothing, and food under the guise of helping the needy, but the needs of sustaining the "inner CPUSA group" were taken care of first and then what ever was left over was doled out to the people they professed to be helping.) ESWA had a regular procedure for obtaining their donations and had one group that was referred to as "the sustainers" that gave donations, mostly money, on a monthly or regular basis. [] stated that these people were probably aware of the inner CPUSA group of ESWA.

b7D

Due to probation, [] did not participate in the daily operations of the inner CPUSA group but he continued attending the secret meetings which constituted mostly political discussions that usually reverted into violent name calling discussions among the members on the economic situation in this country and how Communism would solve these problems. (Some inner group members were more militant than others.) Primarily, the business which was discussed at these secret meetings concerned improving the funds donations, increasing but remaining selective the inner CPUSA group, and keeping the knowledge of the existence of the inner CPUSA group secure. In this vain, exact minutes as to who said what were kept at each meeting and security men were placed outside the building when the meetings were taking place.

The inner group was extremely secretive about everything having to do with their activities, meetings, and members. They were very security conscious with no telephone conversations between members or other branches of ESWA allowed. (On a daily basis, [] would take all documents and literature by pouch to Trenton, New Jersey, which appeared to be the headquarters for that area.)

b6
b7C
b7D

Only a small number of people off the street who assisted in ESWA's work were asked into the inner CPUSA group. A large number of the people who assisted in ESWA were minorities, black and Puerto Ricans, but the inner CPUSA group was almost devoid of minority membership. [] could only remember one black member in the Philadelphia branch of ESWA and could remember none in attendance at any of the meetings he attended in New York City or Atlantic City. While the inner CPUSA group did not profess any racist beliefs, these tendencies were obviously there.

[] stated that the "inner CPUSA group" of ESWA recruited heavily on the college campuses in the Philadelphia area and have in their recruiting ranks professors from these various college campuses. (One [] could remember was a professor at the University of Pennsylvania, [])

[] stated that the recruiting effort had been escalated in 1979 in order to have enough "solid members" to assist in making the military four year plan a reality. They had also reduced the probationary time that these new members served also to broaden the inner CPUSA members.

[] had learned of the military aspects of ESWA indirectly and that it was never discussed openly in the inner CPUSA groups. Only the members not serving a probationary term were allowed direct knowledge of the military four year plan. Through overheard conversations and passing remarks, [] learned that members received military training at various areas throughout the east coast and possibly California. [] remembered vaguely that California and military training were mentioned numerous times together, possibly meaning California is one of the main training areas. In regard to this violent overthrow, mention was made of the ESWA's infiltration of unions throughout the eastern seaboard area and that a majority of the support for this overthrow will come from ESWA members in these unions. Also, in discussions involving the military aspects, a Philadelphia police lieutenant was mentioned as being involved in some capacity as well as a Marine Corps reserve lieutenant. [] was very vague on these aspects as source was not privy to the inside information, but [] is certain that there is such a military four year plan in existence within the inner CPUSA group of ESWA.

A subsidiary organization to ESWA is Eastern Farmworkers Association (EFA) of Suffolk County, New York, 76 West Main Street, Riverhead, Long Island, New York. ESWA members in Furthering the cause of ESWA. (There is a possibility that a located somewhere in Suffolk County controlled by this subsidiary of the US Government, Suffolk County, and EFWA were all mentioned in the same conversations but again his recollections are vague in this area.

[] stated that during all these secret meetings and after in general conversations of the inner group members, the name Gus Hall was never mentioned in his presence. Also, the names of national leadership people of the CPUSA leaders were never mentioned in his presence. (Several known CPUSA leaders were named to [] but none of these names were familiar to him.) [] stated that the leadership levels of ESWA, as far as this area is concerned, is as follows:

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Atlantic City,
New Jersey, are responsible to Trenton, New Jersey. Trenton,
New Jersey is responsible to New York City. [] is basing this scheme on observations and conversations with older members and [] advised that ESWA/NATLFED and EFWA are not the only names by which this front organization is known as. There are numerous subsidiary organizations intertwined together and each organization's name changes to reflect the particular area of the country it is located in. For example, ESWA is located in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, and Massachusetts. EFWA is located in Long Island and Wayne County, New York. Other names by which this organization is known as is Northwest Seasonal Workers Association (NWSWA), which is located in Medford, Oregon, and Western Service Workers Association/California Homemakers Association (WSWA/CHMA), are located in California. There are also several "service" organizations that were formed to assist the aforementioned primary organizations (they share the same addresses as the primary organizations.) The service organizations encompass primarily the legal and medical professions. These organizations are LIEJA, Coalition of Concerned Medical Professionals (CCMP) (Long Island, New York; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Trenton, New Jersey, and numerous locations in California), and Coalition of Concerned Legal Professionals (CCLP) (located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Sacramento, California). Also, Long Island Alternative Press (LIAP) is the printing facilities for these organizations.

All of these organizations are intertwined with one another, with the common denominator being the National Labor College (NLC) which is run by the NATLFED. The NLC serves as the arena by which all of these organizations (27 total) congregate for national meetings which are held in New York City. Apparently, this college also serves as an indoctrination into these organizations for prospective members and is the first occasion that NATLFED in a semi-public forum acknowledges that there are other more important aims to be accomplished than the helping of the misfortunate workers of the US.

The NLC is controlled and operated by the NATLFED, 200 West 20th Street, New York, New York. Originally, information on ESWA indicated the association between ESWA and EFWA with the NATLFED. However, this association was not verified at the time of that original information. The booklets which the New York Office obtained from the aforementioned "source," the association between NATLFED and the previously mentioned organizations becomes clear. NATLFED and these other organizations are all advertised as Voluntary Mutual Benefits Association, which are organizing the unrecognized workers (domestic workers, farm workers, seasonal workers and other low paid workers). [] also had heard of the NATLFED in conjunction with the NLC, EFWA and LIEJA.

Whether or not NATLFED et al is a front for the CPUSA cannot definitely be stated, but the teachings of Communism do dominate these organizations and the NLC.

Information on EFWA contained a letter concerning contact with EFWA and LIEJA and a meeting of the NLC in Brooklyn, New York, in October, 1981. The description of how this meeting was organized and run verified the information received earlier from []. This letter, which in addition to expressing the fears of [] about the NLC et al, spoke of the coming American Revolution which was discussed during the meeting in Brooklyn,

New York. This discussion was in very vague terms but the NLC speakers used the Russian Revolution to describe how the coming American Revolution would take place.

The source of this letter [] indicated speeches describing the plight of the migrant farm workers on Long Island. [] volunteered to help in EFWA's projects and became involved [] helped mostly in the collating of various activities involving the migrant workers and ran errands for staffers of EFWA/LIEJA. [] advised of these activities for about a year and [] was asked by [] of LIEJA if requested wanted to attend a national labor college in Brooklyn, New York. [] agreed and on a Sunday was driven to a large Catholic church on Lafayette Street.

Upon arriving at this church, [] group was met by uniformed guards wearing fatigues, boots, and berets which had red stars embossed upon them. These guards numbered 10 to 15 and were responsible for the orderly running of the meeting (no one who attended this meeting was allowed to leave the building unescorted or even to go to the restroom without a guard being with them.) There was a very large, mixed audience in attendance, approximately 300, divided almost evenly between men and women with a few blacks and Hispanics interspersed in the crowd. Of this number, there were approximately 40 prospective new members, who were either there for the first time or had attended one other such meeting. These new members were seated separate from the others.

Salvadorian and Nicaraguan interference by the US).
Additionally, numerous other topics dealing mostly with the US Government's imperialism around the world from 1900's to the present and Watergate were discussed.

Finally, the small groups were disbanded and everyone listened to the main speaker who was enthusiastically received.
His name was [redacted] (Ph) and is described as a white male, [redacted]

[redacted] (this is the same description [redacted] gave of the man in charge of the military aspects of these organizations). [redacted] expanded upon the topics of US imperialism, the Cold War, the teachings of Lenin and the need to have the American Revolution to rectify the corruption of capitalism. He also spoke of Communism in the US and how Communism in this country could not be modeled after Chinese, Cuban, or Russian Communism, but structured to fit this country (a type of American Euro - Communism).

[redacted] when describing how NATLFED was masking its real purpose of organizing and beginning the American Revolution as well as how NATLFED was strengthening itself and training its leaders, made the statement, "We will allow leftist opposition representation in NATLFED as a means to hide our true reasons for strengthen ourselves and train our leaders without interference." [redacted] stated that there was nothing more specific said about what form the American Revolution would take, armed or peaceful.

However, when [redacted] asked one of the people who brought her to were they not afraid of the government's reactions. The woman,

The NLC program was finished at approximately 2:30 AM, almost 12 hours later, and no one was allowed to leave until the group you had arrived with was called and escorted to their cars by the guards. There were groups from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Boston, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, California, and New York. Several days after [] attended this meeting, she voiced uneasiness about NLC and EFWA and expressed the opinion to several of her friends that these organizations were obviously a Communist front. These remarks were somehow relayed back to EFWA and the woman who had sponsored her to attend the NLC, [] was visited at residence by [] and a black man by the name of [] LNU. [] admitted to [] that she was a Communist but only her and that there were many political beliefs in EFWA. [] left [] and the black man alone for a short period of time and [] asked [] how he got involved with these groups. The organization has offices located in Atlantic City, Trenton, and New Brunswick, New Jersey. Additionally, offices are located in Long Island, New York.

The ESWA is an organization oriented towards providing social reform and assistance programs for the poor. They claim to provide emergency housing, dental care, and food programs.
They additionally claim to provide legal aid and medical care for the poor. Classes are held at 1518 South Street relating to

The leaders continue to mention they have a 24 month timetable for the overthrow of the US Government, and expect the overthrow to occur by the poor people, similar to the Bolshevik Revolution in the Soviet Union. No specific actions are known; however, there has been discussion that several members have been involved in para-military training. Attempts to determine specific plans for the violent overthrow of the US Government were met by the leaders that this was a closed matter, and not open for discussion.

Philadelphia has no information at this time that would indicate the ESWA is connected with any other domestic group. Investigation has also determined that the ESWA did not participate in any demonstrations with the Democratic National Conference held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from June 25 - 27, 1982.

On April 26 and April 28, 1982, an anonymous caller contacted the Newark Office of the FBI, and stated as follows:

The caller stated that he had learned of the ESWA through a friend who holds membership in the organization. He stated, however, that he has on occasion "sat in on" meetings of that group in New Brunswick, New Jersey. These would be attended by approximately 10 to 15 people. Only first names were used during these meetings.

The caller stated that this organization does succeed in obtaining donations from a variety of individuals. Some of these donations are used to help poor people who have material needs. In this regard, ESWA is in contact with prominent individuals such as doctors and attorneys. The ESWA frequently receives individuals who are in financial need from the local welfare office.

The caller went on to describe this organization as "100 percent communist," and has learned that ESWA is planning "something big" within the next 24 months. The caller does not know what is meant by "something big." The caller stated that he has heard unspecified individuals state, "We are going to take over." The caller denied having knowledge of any plans for "taking over," or for violence in this regard.

The caller stated that individuals from ESWA Chapters in various cities across the US held a meeting on May 2, 1982, at an unknown location in Bronx, New York. The caller advised that he has learned from his acquaintance, who is an ESWA member, that these meetings which are held periodically are normally all day affairs. He was further told that uniformed armed guards control access to these meetings.

The caller went on to advise that on at least one occasion and ESWA member said, "We have greater control in this country than people realize."

By November 8, 1982, investigation conducted by Philadelphia, New York, and Newark Divisions failed to identify violent intent or violent associations on the part of ESWA.

On August 1, 1983, Newark received a telephone call from an individual identifying herself as [redacted] who had been a full-time "cadre" in captioned group [redacted].

Membership in the military unit appears to be by invitation, only after at least one year as a full cadre member. This instruction is through a controlled reading schedule, lectures and ideological orientation.

document is to be filed in "Closed PC Files." It continues to warn of "clandestine sabotage" within the organization, as the "opposition" is aware of "offensive motion" and "have specific knowledge of Omega 7 operations." It refers to "doing some very heavy things" in several areas, not all of which are "visible."

3. A lengthy military training manual.

IDEOLOGY

1. A thirteen page essay entitled "Third Category Participation is Counterrevolution in Disguise," subtitled "Criticize the Third Herd." This essay refers to the Provisional CPUSA as the third largest, numerically, of its kind in the US, but with higher qualifications for full membership. It refers to the party as the "only clandestine organization" and as "the full-time professional revolutionaries." The report says the founders "fought and bled in foreign communists movements which have become the basis for the realization of revolutionary goals in the US." It defines and characterizes the varied types of revolutionaries and ends with a "reaffirmation of revolution."

2. "Statement of Principles." This large document includes an introductory portion, setting forth the philosophical justification for the organization's existence followed by a lengthy constitutional document.

3. A second copy of the "Statement of Principles," without the attached constitution.

4. A sixty-seven page document entitled "Class on the Analysis," marked "New Brunswick Copy" and "Via Courier Only." This appears to be a primer on Marxist views of history and describes the groups self image.

5. One page memorandum, dated June 29, 1979, to all Eastern Political Commissors and all members. This document was a cover sheet for "Comments from a Comrade on the Analysis." It is believed to refer to item three above. The document sets forth security measures for the analysis. It refers to comments of a "high security nature" and is to be kept locked, unless being read.

6. One seven page document entitled "Briefing on the Analysis Outline." This appears to be a reading guide for above item number three.

MEMBERSHIP, TRAINING AND EVALUATION

1. One page entitled "INVV's, splitters, et al," a list of names, many bearing notations "split" or "resigned."

2. Two pages listing names and telephone numbers of volunteers.

3. One list, dated October 29, 1980, from "NNJ PC," to Politbureau, listing names of previous NLC attendees in the New Brunswick, New Jersey area.

4. One page of handwritten names.

5. One document, dated December 26, 1980, from "National Integrator," regarding a "demographic overview" of the New Brunswick Chapters. This lists several members, gives the hours per week and time with the organization.

6. One six page document, dated July 15, 1979, discussing several individual members and setting forth their orientation to date.

On August 24, 1983, a full domestic security terrorism investigation was authorized to expire on January 23, 1984.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

The Provisional Communist Party (PCP) was founded in approximately 1971 by a group of individuals, including [REDACTED] and an unknown fourth person. The PP was founded to be a revolutionary communist party whose goal is that of seizing control of the government of the US through military force. Asset was told repeatedly, over a period of more than one year, that the US government would be seized, through a coupe on February 19, 1984. The incident, referred to as the "Proscenium Tactic" is scheduled to begin at midnight on February 18, 1984. The members believe that within thirty-nine and one-half (39 1/2) hours the US government will be under their control, probably through a capitulation. The Proscenium Tactic will include the following:

1. A general strike on both east and west coasts of unions under the control of the PP.
2. Jamming telephone lines of temporary employment agencies.
3. A national press conference.
4. Hiring halls to be opened through the Temporary Workers Organizing Committee.
5. Aggressive military action on a nationwide basis by the MF. The nature of this action is not known by asset, as he was not included in the MF.

Following the founding of the PCP, a lengthy constitution was written, which has been combined with a lengthy "Statement of Principles," which defined the organizations structure and intent.

The constitution and Statement of Principals identifies the group as the PPC, USA, and as the Provisional Wing of the Party of Lenin. It refers to the "... closed, narrow and secret party of Lenin as the vehicle of revolution..." The party is defined as: "... a closed or narrow party..." whose "... actual name of the organization will appear on no documents, no propaganda." "The title "Provisional Party" will act as a designate for the inner Party documents." It later refers to the "... closed and secret party of Leninist Revolution."

In addition, the documents call for the establishment of "open" and "closed fractions." [] stated the closed fraction is the "military fraction." The open fractions are the various "entities" established to service the "secret" party and to provide public fronts for financing, recruiting, training, and establishing a power base.

[] stated that the party underwent a major change in 1979. Prior to 1979, the party was "all talk" with members "sitting around smoking dope in the back rooms," with little being accomplished. In 1979, the party shifted from "defense" to an "acute offensive" phase. The new phase banned drugs and sex in order to become more efficient and instituted a "military" type order to become more efficient and instituted a "military" type discipline. Each member began to operate on the basis of a daily "Battle Plan," in which each cadre members day is accounted for, in writing, on a 24 hour basis. Each hour is accounted for in quarter hour segments.

The progress from part-time volunteer to full membership in the "interior" party is highly formalized and regulated through formal lectures, reading assignments, lectures and evaluation, under the sponsorship of two interior members.

The first stage is a "Tabular Volunteer." The Tabular is a person who volunteers, through one of the public organizations operated by full members, to donate money, run errands, make telephone calls, etc. Within three months to one year, this volunteer, after evaluation, may be upgraded to "Viable Volunteer." At this level, the volunteer can be counted on to volunteer whatever is requested. He begins attending the NLC and usually becomes aware, to varying degrees, of the Marxist or revolutionary aspect of the organization. He is placed under the jurisdiction of the cadre system.

The next stage, the "Tabular Cadre," may be full or part-time. He learns of the "Statement of Principles" and is assigned sponsors and given regular reading assignments. He gradually learns that the organizers are "professional revolutionaries."

The forth step is that of the "Viable Cadre." As a viable cadre, the member is fully committed to the revolution.

The final stage, "Full Member" or "Interior Cadre" comes after one year as viable cadre.

Only Interior Cadres are eligible for membership in the "Military Fraction."

[] provided the following information concerning the groups, or "arenas" which are part of the PP:

b7D

[] advised that the PCP is divided into 14 fractions, set forth as follows: Military, Legal, Business, Press, National Labor Federation, Association of Financial Aid to Students (AFAS), Parliamentary, Youth, Minorities, International and the National Foundation for Alternative Resources. Asset added that the AFAS, Youth and Minorities are considered in the "Politbureau Principal of Intertactical Suspense," which means they are not active.

In addition to the above, any activity not directly included in the above, such as medical, is handled under Additional Arenas (AD-AR).

Of the above, the MF is by far the largest, with many members of other fractions also holding military assignments. The military is considered a "closed" or "secret" fraction and is basically supported by all of the others. Asset stated that an [] obtained voluminous internal documents. Due to the voluminous material, it is being summarized for clarity purposes.

The comments listed below are in no way concise summaries of the material but serve as descriptions of some of the contents and reveal significant aspects.

Specific attention is drawn to items numbered two, three, four, five, and six. Particularly of interest, in Newark's analysis were comments regarding Castro in item six and comments by the unknown speaker, in item six, concerning Guatemala.

1. September 23, 1981, is a memo to "All Political Commissars" (PC) from "NPC/MFC" (National Political Commissars/Military Fraction Commander) regarding "Security: general order."

This document is a cover letter with an attached security note. It refers to "contact with the adversary" referring to governmental authorities and pursuit of specific offensives by "fronts." The document refers to "the goal of the organization being the same" while none of you will ever know the whole of it, you know enough to be fully conscientious about security and your own responsibilities. It directs that "this vehicle and the security note attached are to be filed in closed PC files."

2. September 22, 1981, memo is the security note attached referred to above. This apparently significant "security note" predicts "attempts at espionage and sabotage inside the organization." It warns that the "opposition" is aware "of our overall enhanced offensive motion" and has "specific knowledge of "Omega 7" operations and other closed arena work." [] has stated "Omega 7" does not refer to the anti-Castro terrorist group but does not know its meaning.

The note continues to state that "we use offensive security, not defensive security, and few are trained for it." Asset could not define "offensive security."

The last paragraph refers to "doing some very heavy things in several areas," which are "not all visible."

b6
b7C
3. A "Report on G.O. 4" and others on security memorandum, dated June 24, 1983, is from "Mercer [redacted] [redacted] to New Brunswick [redacted] reports on the various "elements of Phase II implementation." This document is a routine report and evaluation of the military units in Mercer County, New Jersey. It discusses training, promotions, and personnel problems.

4. Item four consists the following: cover letter, dated June 26, 1981, enclosing training documents from "MF-ADC" (Military Fraction-Aide DeCamp) to "All MF Liaisons." 2. A "sign out sheet" for control of the training documents. 3. A Military Training Manual.

b7C
The cover letter instructs that the training documents are to be studied by "all MF trainees" and instructs "MF liaisons" to retain the documents in "security files." It gives further specific security instructions and emphasizes the secret nature of the documents. It is signed [redacted]

It is noted that the original, provided by asset, was enclosed in a ringed notebook and maintained in a briefcase, by the MF liaison.

The "sign out sheet" records the various parts of the manual being removed and returned various dates.

The military training documents deal with military law and courtesy, physical fitness, "an open letter to the closed section," discussing discipline and self sacrifice, funds and philosophy of the MF. Page nine of the "open letter" describes the training groups as "comprised of ten-rates and three ranks, supervised by one member of field grade capacity." Asset was unable to define these terms.

Other elements of the manual include documents regarding the Lee Enfield #4 Rifle, Universal Code of Military Justice; Military Law, Military Customs; Use of Deadly Force, Hand to Hand Combat, and bayonet fighting, blow up diagram on the US M-1 carbine, Shore Party Operations which discusses combat tactics, Offensive Combat, which is marked "By Clearance Only" indicating their security classification and provides instructions in small unit combat tactics and a section on "Offensive Combat," "Squad Combat Formations," and "Defensive Combat."

5. The "Statement of Principles" is an apology of the beliefs and ideology of the secret party. The portion labelled "Section II," General Principles begins a 64 article constitution. The last two pages comprise a bibliography of recommended readings.

These documents establish the "closed" or secret aspect of the Provisional Party and its Marxist-Leninist revolutionary goals.

b7D identified this statement of principles and constitution as the basis of the party and states "The Provisional Party is the closed and secret party of Leninist Revolution."

6. This item entitled, "Class on the Analysis" bears markings "Via courier only." It is noted that for some unknown reason, the title has been inked over. This lengthy document continues and enlarges ideas set forth in the above principles and the philosophical basis of the party and explains its revolutionary goals.

It is noted that page 23 and 24 bear a history of Communist philosophy, tracing "mentors" through Fidel Castro.
"who was the mentor of our mentors within the Cuban Army." [redacted] was unable to amplify this, other than repeat the party was said to have close connections with Castro and Cuba, with Castro being aware of the parties existence.

Page 23 also states they have a strategy "to go all the way" and "we have allies abroad and we intend to win hegemony over them too, and that means we're shooting for the whole world."

On page 32, the unidentified lecturer states, "We don't use torture, because it's unreliable." The lecturer then describes his own experiences in Guatemala, "My method, when I was in Guatemala, was that I would bring two in, I would ask one a question and, if he refused to answer, I would shoot him between the eyes." He then continues to discuss revolutionary techniques and ineffectual techniques and their relations with ruling Communist parties.

Page 38 calls for "a broad united front, composed of workers, united with "revolutionaries of all nations" to "form a broad united front within the socialist camp."

Page 39 holds examples of strategies, in which the Soviet Union sees the Provisional Party as having "whipped the US Government, or says, "Jesus Christ, they've got a war on in the US."

Page 40 refers to "NATLFED" as being "illegal" and existing to "build the organization, and for no other reason.

The lecturer refers to an "iron party Lenin, a party of militant discipline bordering on military discipline and, of course, super military discipline in the secret part."

Page 61 declares, "There is not one historical precedent for the peaceful transition from capitalism to socialism."

7. This document is an essay entitled, "Third Category Participation is Counterrevolution in Disguise." It continues the philosophical basis for the party.

8. This memo, entitled Line Direction: Add. #1, marked NB copy 5, contains several versions of the "mass line" to be used in answering questions or remarks from outside of the CPUSA, Provisional. It is noted that in newspaper articles and previous Bureau interviews, these lines are recognizable.

9. This item, dated September 1, 1979, is entitled, "National Training Directive #1" and is from the NPC. It is described as "a comprehensive guide to organizational protocol" and is for "interior use only." It is enclosed as it represents a concise description of some of the interior mechanisms of the CPUSA, P.

10. This letter, dated June 29, 1979, to all eastern Political Commissars from the National PC, may be a cover letter for item six above.

11. An outline entitled, "Briefing on the Analysis Outline." This is believed to refer to items five and six above. The fifth page of this document discusses violence. "We will do whatever it takes (ruthlessly patient or use elections or use armed struggle - whatever will work." "We don't care what the ruling class doesn't like, allow or make legal."

"Violence currently existing in the USA killing our members;" "there is a war going on between the two classes; it doesn't matter if people die from guns or from tuberculosis and hunger." The discussion of violence continues without specifics.

12. This item is a cover sheet and "Briefing on the Letter Requesting Admission," dated May 13, 1983. This sets forth instructions regarding a formal, legal (per interior constitution) document requesting party membership. The briefing letter also describes the "cadre information sheet." The letter recognizes the illegality of the organization and instructs that records of MF participation not be entered into the "permanent party dossier." Regarding the entry letter, instructions are set forth that information on legal, financial, or personal situations "that could potentially jeopardize the party or the individual, are not detailed in the letter."

It instructs further that the name of the party is not to be used.

13. This lengthy document, "Administrative Orders of Acute Offensive Action," "National Labor Federation" contains instruction on increasing the productivity of the public entities, such as ESWA. Approximately half way through the document a section entitled, "Last Periods, New Periods" refers to meeting the "timetabled formulation" and meeting "the date, or better, exceed the date, we've set for the insurrection."

SUBJECT: CALIFORNIA HOMEMAKERS ASSOCIATION,

DIVISIONS OF NATIONAL LABOR FEDERATION
REDDING, CALIFORNIA
DOMESTIC SECURITY

On 7/1/81, [REDACTED] voluntarily appeared at the Chico Resident Agency and advised he wished to provide information which he had received regarding captioned organizations, inasmuch as he had joined the California Homemakers Association believing it to be a charitable organization designed to benefit poor and aged in Northern California. [REDACTED] has since come to believe that the California Homemakers Association is a division of the National Labor Federation and may advocate violent overthrow of the American political system. After joining California Homemakers Association (CHA), [REDACTED] became involved in such activities as fund raising and canned good drives which were ostensibly designed to benefit poor people in the Redding, California area. CHA offices are located in Redding. [REDACTED] initially believed that the organization was designed to attract persons in the medical profession, primarily doctors, who would volunteer part of their time to giving service to the needy who would otherwise be unable to afford such medical care. He noted that CHA operates a free medical clinic for the poor and elderly in their Redding offices on Thursday night each week.

After taking a political class given by [REDACTED] CA for Western Service Workers Association (WSWA), [REDACTED] began to have doubts as to the true motives of the organization. [REDACTED] made statements in this legal class to the effect that fascism is alive in the United States and calling the ghettos concentration camps which breed fascism in this country. [] told those taking the class that there are only two sides which an individual could take in analysing the political system in this country, the first being satisfied with the status quo, the second advocating radical change in the government structure through elections, the legal system, or violence.

b7C

[] noted that the WSWA maintains a very strict chain of command, headed by [] (LNU), a leader in charge of Arina Operations in the Redding Arina. There are other Cadre leaders in charge of fund raising, volunteer recruiting, Cadre training, speaking engagements, maintenance, and others, all of whom report directly to []. A cadre leader was defined as being a full time organizer with people working directly under him. [] noted the organization claims 5,000 signed members in the Redding area. He noted they are so busy recruiting new people to the organization at this time that office personnel in the Redding office have approximately 600 new members recently signed up who have not yet been processed through the organization paperwork. He noted that the organization has 12 full time organizers who recruit 12 hours a day, seven days a week assisted by many other part time organizers.

b7C

[] advised there are 14 NLF offices throughout the country, one of which is Sacramento. The Redding office is a new office which is an offshoot of the Sacramento office.

After spending some time with the organization, [] became aware that the charitable programs offered by the organization are definitely secondary and recruiting is a primary effort. He noted the organization leaders show slight interest in the poorest of poor, but other aspects of charitable programs operated by the group seem to be a front for their political recruiting.

b7C

[] went on to note that the group has recently received some pressure from the Media in the Redding area to disclose their charitable accomplishments but have refused to cooperate with the press in this regard. [] asked how they would respond if local authorities obtained a search warrant to review office files. []

SC 100-8023

b7C

[] responded by saying they have at least 12 men who would fight officers in any attempted execution of a search warrant in this matter. He noted there is always some one guarding the Redding office to the extent there is always a guard sleeping in the office so that it is manned 24 hours a day. Records maintained in the Redding office include membership records, records of fund drives, etc. He noted fund drive records include names of persons who donated money to the drives, types of material donated, attitude of donors, names of persons who consented to make their homes available for meetings and the like.

b6
b7C

[] noted he heard no mention of firearms training or saw indication of firearms present within the group members.

[] then provided a copy of his membership application, as well as numerous other documents which he received from the organization regarding their basic alleged functions and recruiting effort.

b6
b7C

[] wished to make it known to the FBI that he is no longer involved with the organization after becoming aware of their potential militant attitude toward government change.

RE NK TELETYPES TO FBIHQ AND NYO, DATED AUGUST 3 AND AUGUST 17, 1983.

FOR INFORMATION OF RECEIVING OFFICES, INVESTIGATION BY THE NYO TO DATE, HAS VERIFIED INFORMATION FROM NEWARK SOURCE CONTAINED IN REFERENCED NEWARK TELETYPE.

THE ADDRESSES PROVIDED BY NEWARK SOURCE; 1107, 1111 AND 1115 CARROLL STREET, BROOKLYN, ARE FOUR-STORIED BUILDINGS, WITH A PHYSICAL LAYOUT AS DESCRIBED BY SOURCE. ALL THREE BUILDINGS ARE LISTED IN THE KINGS COUNTY (BROOKLYN) TAX RECORDS AS BEING OWNED BY ~~FOX FIRE BREEDING CORPORATION~~, [REDACTED]

THIS SAME ADDRESS COMES BACK TO [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

ON OCTOBER 26, 1983, THE NEW YORK OFFICE WAS ABLE TO LOCATE AND INTERVIEW A RESIDENT OF [REDACTED] WHO IS NOT A MEMBER OF CAPTIONED GROUP. INTERVIEW WAS CONDUCTED AT THE NYO AND LASTED SEVERAL HOURS. THIS NEW SOURCE WAS HIGHLY INFORMATIVE AND HAS BEEN A RESIDENT AT THE LOCATION FOR APPROXIMATELY FOUR YEARS. THIS SOURCE ADVISED WITHOUT ANY QUESTIONING THAT A TUNNEL SYSTEM EXISTS

IN ALL THREE BUILDINGS CONNECTING THE BASEMENTS, THAT THE BASEMENTS ARE STRICTLY OFF LIMITS TO THE TENANTS AND ALSO, THAT THERE IS A SENTRY KEPT AT A SECOND FLOOR WINDOW 24 HOURS A DAY. NEW YORK SOURCE ALSO ADVISED THAT APPROXIMATELY TWO YEARS AGO SOURCE OBSERVED A CARDBOARD BOX FULL OF GUNS AND HOLSTERS IN THE OFFICE OF [REDACTED] [REDACTED] WAS DESCRIBED BY NEW YORK SOURCE AS [REDACTED] [REDACTED] OF THE STRANGE GROUP OF PEOPLE WHO FREQUENT THE BUILDINGS.

b6

THE BUREAU AND RECEIVING OFFICES SHOULD NOTE THAT PARALLEL CASES MAY HAVE BEEN OPENED ON CAPTIONED GROUP, DUE TO THE VARIOUS NAMES USED. DETAILED INFORMATION WAS SUPPLIED TO BUREAU UNDER BUFILE 105-293232, WHICH FULLY CORROBORATES INFORMATION FROM NEWARK SOURCE AND WHAT SOURCE IN NEW YORK HAS NOW PROVIDED. NYO IS CONSOLIDATING NYFILES 100A-182446, 182953, 182446 AND 179753 INTO 100A-182949. [REDACTED] IS ALSO A SUBJECT OF NYFILE [REDACTED] ALTHOUGH THE NYO WILL BE SUBMITTING A DETAILED LHM TO BUREAU AND INTERESTED OFFICES, A BRIEF SYNOPSIS FOLLOWS:

b6
b7C

THE TRUE NAME OF THE GROUP IS THE "PROVISIONAL PARTY OF

COMMUNISTS" (PPC). THIS NAME IS USED ONLY BY AND AMONG MEMBERS OF THE GROUP. ABOVEGROUND THE MAIN ORGANIZATION IS THE ~~NATIONAL LABOR~~ FEDERATION" (NLF) WHICH ANSWERS TO THE PPC. THE NLF IN TURN HAS APPROXIMATELY 40 SURFACE GROUPS UNDER IT ACROSS THE COUNTRY. THESE SURFACE GROUPS ARE COMMUNITY-ACTION RELATED AND PROFESS TO BE ESTABLISHED TO HELP VARIOUS GROUPS, CITIZENS OR INDIVIDUALS. AS MEMBERS ARE RECRUITED INTO THESE SURFACE GROUPS THEY ARE EVALUATED AND LATER INVITED INTO THE PPC IF DEEMED APPROPRIATE. WITHIN THE PPC THERE EXISTS A MILITARY FRACTION (MF), WHICH PRACTICES MILITARY DRILLS AND IS ARMED. MILITARY ACTIVITIES ARE HELD ON A NEED TO KNOW BASIS. HEADQUARTERS FOR THE PPC IS 1107-1111-1115 CARROLL STREET, BROOKLYN, NEW YORK. NEWARK SOURCE HAS ADVISED THAT A ROOM CALLED THE "CAVE" IS LOCATED WITHIN ONE OF THESE BUILDINGS WHERE WEAPONS ARE STORED. THE PPC PLANS THE OVERTHROW OF THE GOVERNMENT ON FEBRUARY 19, 1984, BY: US

- 1) A GENERAL STRIKE ON BOTH EAST AND WEST COASTS OF UNIONS UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE PPC.
- 2) JAMMING TELEPHONE LINES OF TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

3) A NATIONAL PRESS CONFERENCE.

4) AGGRESSIVE MILITARY ACTION ON A NATIONWIDE BASIS BY THE MILITARY FRACTION.

THE NYO IS CONTINUING INVESTIGATION TO POSITIVELY IDENTIFY [REDACTED] AND IS ALSO REVIEWING NUMEROUS FILES ON CAPTIONED GROUPS AND MEMBERS. THE PURPOSE OF SUCH REVIEW IS TO IDENTIFY AND LOCATE FORMER MEMBERS OF THE PPC WHO MAY BE IN A POSITION TO FURNISH PERTINENT INFORMATION REGARDING THE PROJECTED ACTIVITIES AND GOALS
OF THIS ORGANIZATION, IN PARTICULAR, THE STORAGE OF ANY FIREARMS
AND/OR EXPLOSIVES, AND THE INTENDED USE FOR THE SAME.
